Significant Events:

- On December 3rd while on his way home, Chief Henderson located and initiated the pursuit of a quadruple homicide suspect from a Townsend incident. The pursuit ended near the south side of the Summit Bridge after the suspect struck a NCCPD vehicle and a civilian vehicle. He was taken into custody without incident, and t.o.t. the NCCPD.
- On December 23rd, Off. Cindy Williams was sworn in by Mayor Johnson. Off. Williams is the first full-time female officer in department history.
- Officers assisted with escorting the Christmas Parade and volunteered with the Lions Club Food Drive.
- We will be looking into launching a community watch program in the near future. Anyone interested should email me at Michael.Henderson@cj.state.de.us
- The Department continues to make strides to recruit applicants to fill vacant positions.
